"The White Rabbit put on his spectacles.
'Where shall I begin, please your Majesty?'
he asked.
'Begin at the beginning,' the King said, gravely, 'and go on till you come to the end; then stop.'"

Every school has its individual character and, when reporting on Norkem Park High School 1980, we hope to capture something of this character.

Our school has a relaxed atmosphere in which personal relationships receive a great deal of attention and numerous activities run smoothly and successfully. We feel that the pupils' work published conveys the vitality and character of our school. The teachers have contributed towards painting the picture of our school's extra mural activities.

We would like to thank both pupils and teachers for the material supplied. Our thanks is also extended to Mrs. J. Swart, responsible for the typing. All quotations were taken from 'Alice in Wonderland' by Lewis Carroll.

"Then she looked at the sides of the well, and noticed that they were filled with cupboards and book-shelves, and here and there she saw maps and pictures hung upon pegs. She took down a jar from one of the shelves as she passed. It was labelled 'ORANGE MARMELADE'."
